Turners & Growers Ltd announces the appointment of Alastair Hulbert as Chief Executive Officer

Sir John Anderson, Deputy Chairman of Turners & Growers Ltd, has announced the appointment of Alastair Hulbert as Chief Executive Officer effective today, Friday 14 June 2013.

"Alastair has extensive industry experience and talent which will be very valuable in managing New Zealand's largest vertically-integrated produce marketer.

Alastair has been involved with the produce industry for much of his life, growing up on an asparagus farm through to the growing, packing and marketing of fresh produce both in New Zealand and offshore. This unique background enables him to bring a wide range of relevant experience to the Chief Executive position, across all aspects of the business."

His most recent roles have been at the executive level; as General Manager of International Markets for Turners & Growers and prior to that he spent nine years as General Manager of Delica Global, Turners & Growers export subsidiary company, a company that has put strong grower and customer relationships at the heart of its business model.

The appointment of Alastair to the CEO position will bring a considerable amount of industry experience, stability and leadership to the company, allowing for a refocusing on core business relationships and a vision for the future expansion and growth of Turners & Growers Ltd.
