

Policy Share Trading
Purpose	T&G Global Limited is listed on the NZX Main Board. As a result, there are legal restrictions that may apply to directors' and employees' ability to Trade the Company's shares. This is governed by the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013.
Scope	This Policy is a group-wide policy and applies to T&G Global Limited (the Company) and its majority-owned / controlled subsidiaries (together T&G or the Group) including:  • Staff of T&G  • Members of the Board of Directors of T&G Global Limited (hereinafter collectively "Staff");  • Associates (as defined below) of Staff.
	This policy shall also apply to contractors of T&G and temporary staff who are specifically advised that the policy applies to them and any reference to "Staff" or "employee" in this policy includes such contractors and temporary staff.
Procedure	<ul> <li>Procedure         <ul> <li>Application Form</li> <li>Before Staff members or anyone advised, buy, sell or transfer shares in the Company, he must fill out an Application Form (Appendix 2) and send it for approval:</li></ul></li></ul>
	b. Approval  The Approval Officer will consider the circumstances and approve or decline the request.  Approval can be withheld at his absolute discretion. There may be cases where the approval is refused because if the Staff member were to Trade, that may give rise to an appearance of a misuse of confidential information, even though this was not the case. If approval is withheld, the Staff member will be advised of a date at which approval will be reconsidered. Copies of all approvals will be provided to the Directors for the Board meeting next occurring after approval has been given.
	<ul> <li>c. Completion of Trade         Once approval has been given, the Staff member has 15 business days to complete the Trade, provided that he does not have, or come into possession of, any Material Information concerning T&amp;G prior to completing the Trade.         When the Trade is complete Staff must send to the Approval Officer details of the transaction (such as a copy of the contract note).     </li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>2. Periods of Non-Trade As a matter of Company policy, there are certain periods when Staff members will not be allowed to Trade. Shares may only be sold and purchased: <ul> <li>Not later than 15 business days after the consent of the Company has been given; and</li> <li>During either of the following periods:</li> <li>The period commencing on the day after the day on which the results of T&amp;G for the most recently completed fiscal year of T&amp;G are announced to the NZX Main Board and ending five months after the end of that financial year; and</li> <li>The period commencing on the day after the day on which the results of T&amp;G for the most recently completed half year of T&amp;G are announced to the NZX Main Board and ending four months after the end of that financial half year.</li> </ul> </li></ul>
	3. Activities with Associates Staff members must not cause or permit any of their Associates to enter any transaction which they themselves are prohibited from entering under this policy and must not give any Associate any information or opinion which could lead that Associate to enter such a transaction.
	4. Possession of Material Information

APPENDIX 1 - Definitions

Associate: spouse (legal or de facto), any relatives (including grandparents, parents, children, grandchildren, siblings, nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts or first cousins), any company or trust which Staff can control and any person, company or trust over whose investment decisions Staff has any influence (this would include an account of a friend or relative).

Staff is deemed to control a company where Staff and/or any combination of Staff and Associates have the power, directly or indirectly, to exercise, or control the exercise of, 25% or more of its voting rights, or are a director or senior manager of that company.

Staff is deemed to control a trust where Staff and/or any combination of Staff and Associates are trustees or have the power to remove a trustee of the trust or nominate a new trustee.

Approval Officer: Chief Executive Officer, who has been appointed by the Board as being the person responsible for approving Trading in T&G's shares by all Staff (other than Directors, when the Approval Officer is the Chairman of the Board), or such other person as may be appointed in the absence of the Chief Executive Officer.

Material Information: Information that:

- (a) A reasonable person would expect, if it were generally available to the market, to have a material effect on the price of T&G's shares; and
- (b) Relates to T&G's shares or T&G itself, rather than to financial products generally or public issuers generally.

Information is "generally available to the market":

- (a) if:
  - It is information that has been made known in a manner that would, or would be likely to, bring it to the attention of persons who commonly invest in relevant financial products (such as T&G's shares);
     and
  - (ii) Since it was made known, a reasonable period for it to be disseminated among those persons has expired; or
- (b) if it is likely that persons who commonly invest in financial products (such as T&G's shares) can readily obtain the information (whether by observation, use of expertise, purchase from other persons, or any other means); or
- (c) if it is information that consists of deductions, conclusions, or inferences made or drawn from either or both of the kinds of information referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b).
